BRITS SET TO SEARCH FOR GOLDEN TEABAG!

As one of the 'Best of British' brands supporting Coronation Street's golden anniversary, Typhoo is celebrating with a high profile Willy Wonka style promotion which is set to create excitement nationwide as Corrie fans frantically search for one of the 100 'golden teabags' hidden within special packs of Typhoo tea!

A lucky fan will win the chance to join in the filming of a real life episode! They will tour the iconic street, visiting legendary locations including The Rovers Return, Roy's Rolls, and The Kabin!

The 100 lucky winners of the golden teabags will receive a set of limited edition, collectible Corrie-themed tea caddies and also be entered into a prize draw to win a day on set with the Corrie stars. You've got to admit, that the chance to be a part of Britain's favourite soap is far more memorable than an everlasting gobstopper!

All you have to do to be in with the chance of winning, is raid your local supermarket of all packs of Typhoo tea. If you are lucky enough to uncover a golden teabag, then be sure to let the Typhoo team know in order to receive your limited edition tea caddies. And while you wait to see if you have been chosen as the overall winner, why not kick back and put the kettle on!
